GET INVOLVED

Want to create a social and support network to keep you feeling connected and part of the Gator community? Find your place on campus and build your network.

Build your disability community with the DRC
- Disability Ambassadors: Creating a culture of access & inclusion at UF
- Delta Alpha Pi International Honors Society for students with disabilities
- SOCIAL Gators: Empowerment group for student on the Autism Spectrum

If you want to create a new disability student org, or connect with any of the over 900 student orgs at UF, check out Student Activities & Involvement.

Explore your leadership style or give back to the community with the David & Wanda Brown Center for Leadership & Service.

Other ways to get connected:
- First Generation Student Success
- Sorority & Fraternity Affairs
- Veterans Services

Broaden your cultural understanding or explore the intersectionality of your identities by studying abroad, joining an affinity group, or attending an event put on by Multicultural & Diversity Affairs or the International Office.
