

LAW SCHOOL G-ATR STUDENT GUIDE

ACCOMMODATED TESTING AT THE DISABILITY RESOURCE CENTER

The Gator Accommodated Test Request (G-ATR) portal allows students with testing accommodations to schedule accommodated testing services at the Disability Resource Center (DRC). You will only use G-ATR if you would like to test at the DRC. Log into G-ATR by visiting the DRC website, disability.ufl.edu.

- To receive accommodated testing services at the DRC, submit your accommodation letter to your Law School liaison, Dean Mitchell, as soon as possible. Your course will not appear in the G-ATR Testing Portal if your accommodation letter has not been sent to Dean Mitchell.
- The DRC Testing Office has a 4-business day policy. Accommodated Test Requests (ATRs) must be submitted at least four business days before the day of the test. This does not include weekends, holidays, or the day of the exam.
- See the Submit By Calculator on the G-ATR home page to confirm your ATR will be submitted within the four-business day policy. The DRC recommends submitting ATRs when available in G-ATR.
- If you missed the four-business day deadline due to an extenuating circumstance, you must work with your liaison on the possibility of rescheduling or alternative testing options.

The consequences of academic dishonesty are left up to the proxy and/or instructor.
